

used to

HINT: I (Ms. Takeuchi) used to live in Tokyo.
I used to play tennis.
I used to teach at a junior high school.
I used to wear glasses.

What does it mean??

weight

HINT: Weight shows how heavy something is.
Weight is a big secret for many women.
You use grams or kilograms to measure weight.

What does it mean??

price

HINT: A price shows how much something is.
You check the price when you buy something at a store.
If the price is too high, you will not buy it.

What does it mean??

(to) bark

HINT: Human beings don't bark.
Only some animals bark.
Some animals, especially dogs, bark.

What does it mean??

refrigerator

HINT: A refrigerator is a machine.
You use it to keep food cool.
It's in the kitchen.

What does it mean??

dandelion

HINT: A dandelion is a flower.
They bloom in spring.
It looks like lions.

What does it mean??

(to) blow

HINT: Whales blow air from a hole on their heads.
You blow bubbles.
You blow dandelions.
The wind blows your hat off.
You blow your hair dry with a hair dryer.

What does it mean??

deaf

HINT: If you are deaf, you can't hear.
Deaf people use sign language to communicate.

What does it mean??

president

HINT: A president is a person.
Some companies have presidents.
Some countries have presidents, too.
A president is the head of an official group.

What does it mean??

elementary

HINT: Elementary is a level.
Elementary is the simplest and most basic level.
Elementary level is the first step.

What does it mean??

sweat

HINT: Sweat is a liquid.
When your body is hot, sweat forms on your skin to cool down your body.
"POCARI SWEAT" doesn't sound delicious.

What does it mean??

(to) own

HINT: You own a car.
You own a house.
You own a company.

What does it mean??

I'm mad

I'm glad cold

-
-

kind

-
-

mean

-
-

train

-
-